Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Just a short newsletter to follow up with the Term Planner sent out at the end of last term, and reminding you of all the events planned for this term.

Welcome back to 3rd Term. A bit "thanks" to all students on making the start of 3rd term such a smooth one.

Dance lessons started our first day back, and Taryn (dance teacher) reported that all students were so well behaved and she was so impressed!!!!

Dance Lessons—these will be held every Tuesday for 30 minutes per class, culminating in our Showcase Performance on the 18th September. Cost is $30 per student—please ensure that this is paid, or make a payment arrangement with the front office.

27th July—Assembly—French

27th July—After School Science classes commence and continue for 4 weeks. Students need to nominate and pay for these classes. Please see Mrs Waters.

31st July—NAIDOC Tabloid activities—2:00-3:00pm. Children will be in multi-age groups and rotate around different activities. Parents are welcome to join in!

10th August—Assembly—Room 9

13th August—National Science Week starts

15th August—Lunch Time Science Show and Dress as a Scientist Day

16th August—Interschool Cross Country 9:00-11:00am—Tomato Lake

16th August—Paper Plane Competition—2:30pm—all welcome

20th-24th August—Book Week "Find Your Treasure" Dress Up parade—9:00am Friday, 24th

31st August—Assembly—Room 3

Fathers' Day Stall—9:30am onwards

3rd September—CREEC

Excursion—Room 3 & 4—information from Mrs Waters to follow.

4th September—Faction Jumps and Throws—pm

5th September—Faction Athletics Carnival—all day

18th September—Dance presentation and Showcase—6:00pm start

19th September—"Talk Like a Pirate Day" - dress as a pirate!

21st September—Assembly—Sports Awards and Sing-a-long

In between all of those events, we have Finance Committee meetings, School Council Meetings and P&C Meetings.

Until next week—stay safe and happy
